Re: Petitions for the Imposition of Antidumping and Countervailing Duties:
Corrosion-Resistant Steel Products from Australia, Brazil, Canada, Mexico,
the Netherlands, South Africa, Taiwan, Turkey, the United Arab Emirates, and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam

Dear Secretary Raimondo and Secretary Barton:

On behalf of Steel Dynamics, Inc. (“SDI”), Nucor Corporation (“Nucor”), United States Steel Corporation (“U. S. Steel”), Wheeling-Nippon Steel, Inc. (“Wheeling-Nippon”), and the United Steel, Paper and Forestry, Rubber, Manufacturing, Energy, Allied Industrial and Service Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, CLC (the “USW”) (collectively “Petitioners”), we hereby submit to the U.S. Department of Commerce (“Commerce”) and the U.S. International Trade Commission (the “Commission”) petitions for the imposition of antidumping (“AD”) and countervailing duties (“CVD”) on certain corrosion-resistant steel products (“CORE”) imported from Australia, Brazil, Canada, Mexico, the Netherlands, South Africa, Taiwan, Turkey, the United Arab Emirates (the “UAE”), and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam (“Vietnam”) pursuant to sections 701, 702(b), 731, and 732(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. §§ 1671, 1671a(b), 1673, and 1673a(b)).¹ SDI, Nucor, U. S. Steel, and Wheeling-Nippon are domestic producers of CORE, and are thus domestic interested parties within the meaning of 19 U.S.C. § 1677(9)(C) and 19 C.F.R. § 351.102(b)(17). The USW is a recognized union representing workers in CORE production facilities in the United States, and is this a domestic interested party within the meaning of 19 U.S.C. § 1677(9)(D) and 19 C.F.R. § 351.102(b)(17).

Pursuant to Commerce’s regulations codified at 19 C.F.R. § 351.202(c), we hereby certify that the petitions are being filed simultaneously today with the Commission.

At Commerce, we are filing Volume I (General Issues and Injury) matched with both the information on sales at less-than-fair value and, where applicable, the provision of countervailable subsidies for each respective country. At the Commission, we are filing all fifteen volumes of the petition, including exhibits for each volume, as follows:

¹ U. S. Steel, Wheeling-Nippon, and the USW join in the petitions on CORE from Australia, Brazil, Mexico, the Netherlands, South Africa, Taiwan, Turkey, the UAE, and Vietnam but do not join in the antidumping and countervailing duty petitions on CORE from Canada. Nucor joins in the petitions on CORE from Australia, Brazil, Canada, the Netherlands, South Africa, Taiwan, Turkey, the UAE, and Vietnam but does not join in the petitions on CORE from Mexico.

Volume	Country – AD/CVD

Volume II (Antidumping Australia)

- The names of particular persons from whom business proprietary information was obtained, as well as other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(9) and (11)): Pages 2-4, Table of Exhibits, and Exhibits II-4, II-6 – II-8, and II-11 – II-13.

Volume III (Antidumping Brazil)

- The names of particular persons from whom business proprietary information was obtained, as well as other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(9) and (11)): Pages 2-3, Exhibits III-5 to III-6 and III-8 to III-9.

Volume IV (Antidumping Canada)

- Information obtained by submitter's personnel regarding the petitioner's production process, input usage rates, production costs and other specific business information (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(1), (2) and (11)): Page 4, 6, 10-11, Exhibit IV-6, Exhibits IV-9 - 10, and Exhibit IV-21.
- Other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(11)): Pages 2-3, Exhibit IV-5, Exhibit IV-8, and Exhibit IV-21.
- The names of particular persons from whom business proprietary information was obtained, as well as other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(9) and (11)): Page 6 and Exhibit IV-8.

Volume V (Antidumping Mexico)

- The names of particular persons from whom business proprietary information was obtained, as well as other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(9) and (11)): Petition Pages 2 and 3, Exhibits V-6, V-7, V-9, V-10.

Volume VI (Antidumping Netherlands)

- Information obtained by submitter's personnel regarding the petitioner's production process, input usage rates, production costs and other specific business information (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(1), (2) and (11)): Petition Pages 10 and 11, Exhibits VI-14, VI-17.
- The names of particular persons from whom business proprietary information was obtained, as well as other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter

(19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(9) and (11)): Petition Pages 2, 4, 6, Exhibits VI-6, VI-7, VI-8, VI-9, VI-10, VI-13, VI-27.

Volume VII (Antidumping South Africa)

- Information obtained by submitter's personnel regarding the petitioner's production process, input usage rates, production costs and other specific business information (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(1), (2) and (11)): Page 5 and Exhibits VII-7, VII-8, and VII-18
- Other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(11)): Page 4 and Exhibits VII-6 and VII-18.

Volume VIII (Antidumping Taiwan)

- Information concerning names, dates, and other information related to the acquisition of proprietary information or the source of such information. This information is not publicly available, and disclosure of the data could cause substantial harm to the competitive position of Petitioners, as well as to the sources of the information (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(9)): Pages 2, 3, 6, Exhibit VIII-1, VIII-4-6.
- Information obtained by submitter's personnel through a subscription that is not available for public release and the release of which would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter and impair the ability of the agency to obtain such information in the future (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(11)): Page 3, 4, 5, Exhibit VIII-1.

Volume IX (Antidumping Turkey)

- Terms and prices of individual sales, likely sales, or other offers, as well as other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(4), (5) and (11)): Pages 2 – 3 and Exhibits IX-7 through IX-10.
- Information obtained by submitter's personnel through a subscription that is not available for public release and the release of which would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter and impair the ability of the agency to obtain such information in the future (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(11)): Page 3 and Table of Exhibits.
- The names of particular persons from whom business proprietary information was obtained, as well as other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter

(19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(9) and (11)); Pages 2 – 3 and Exhibits IX-7 through IX-10.

Volume X (Antidumping UAE)

- Information obtained by submitter’s personnel regarding the petitioner’s production process, input usage rates, production costs and other specific business information (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(1), (2) and (11)): Petition Page10 and Exhibits X-11 and X-14
- The names of particular persons from whom business proprietary information was obtained, as well as other specific business information the release of which to the public would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(9) and (11)): Petition Pages 2-4 and Exhibits X-5, X-6, X-7, X-10, and X-22.

Volume XI (Antidumping Vietnam)

- Information obtained by submitter’s personnel through a subscription that is not available for public release and the release of which would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter and impair the ability of the agency to obtain such information in the future (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(11)): Page 3, Exhibit XI-2
- Information obtained by submitter’s personnel regarding the petitioner’s production process, input usage rates, production costs and other specific business information (19 C.F.R. §§ 201.6(a) and 351.105(c)(1), (2) and (11)): Pages 6, 8 and Exhibits XI-7, XI-14.

The bracketed information in these petitions for which business proprietary treatment is requested is entitled to proprietary treatment in accordance with Commerce’s regulations codified at 19 C.F.R. § 351.304(a) and the Commission’s regulations codified at 19 C.F.R. § 201.6(b). Information for which proprietary treatment is requested is not available to the public. Public disclosure of this information would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter. The disclosure of this information would also likely have the effect of impairing the ability of Commerce and the Commission to obtain such information as is necessary to perform their statutory functions. The requisite certification that substantially identical information is not available to the public is attached to this letter, in accordance with the Commission's rules codified at 19 C.F.R. § 201.6(b)(3)(iii).

Pursuant to Commerce's regulations codified at 19 C.F.R. § 351.304(b), Petitioners agree in principle to permit disclosure of the bracketed business proprietary information contained in these petitions under an appropriately drawn administrative protective order ("APO").

Petitioners, however, reserve the right to comment on all APO applications prior to disclosure.

A version of these petitions containing the information for which business proprietary treatment has been requested is being filed simultaneously with this submission pursuant to Commerce's regulations codified at 19 C.F.R. § 351.304(c)(1) and the Commission's rules codified at 19 C.F.R. § 201.8(d).
